

Refren Psalmu:

Pan wywyższony króluje nad ziemią

Rozważania Niedzielne

Łodzią na pustynię

Jezus udaje się łodzią na miejsce pustynne, a przecież to wbrew ludzkiej logice. Tymczasem Pan Bóg zna takie drogi, o których człowiek nie ma pojęcia, nie potrafi ich sobie nawet wyobrazić. Chodzi oczywiście o drogi Boże do naszego życia, do naszych serc. Jeśli Bóg chce gdzieś dotrzeć, to zawsze Mu się to uda/to osiągnie, nawet jeśli człowiekowi wydaje się, że ta droga jest niemożliwa do osiągnięcia, nawet jeśli uważa, że pora jest nieodpowiednia. Jest tylko jeden warunek, musimy Go zaprosić, musimy Go poprosić, aby do nas przybył. Nigdy nie jest za późno, aby się z Nim spotkać.

Jezu, aby przemieniać świat i ludzkie serca, Tobie wystarczy, abym z ufnością ofiarował Ci własne ubóstwo i małość wobec sytuacji przerastających moje możliwości. Ty wierzysz we mnie, proszę, pomnóż moją wiarę w to, że idziesz tuż obok drogą mego życia.

Ogłoszenia / Announcements

W przyszłą niedzielę 13 sierpnia będzie specjalna kolekta dla Katolickich Misji w Kanadzie (wcześniej Scarboro Missions). Ponieważ ta kolekta się zmieniła, przyszły nowe kopertki do użycia, które są wyłożone w kościele. Prosimy je używać zamiast tych znajdujących się w zestawach. Bóg zapłać!

Next Sunday, August 13 there will be a second collection for Catholic Missions/ Canadian Missions (formerly Scarboro Missions). Catholic Missions in Canada and the selected Dioceses in Northern Canada who will benefit from your generosity sustain and extend the Catholic faith to isolated, poor and hard-to-reach mission areas in Canada. Thank you for your support of this important work!

Background on Special Collection for Catholic Missions/Canadian Missions (Formerly Shared Collection): The special collection that takes place in August of each year has been, up to now, distributed to Catholic Missions in Canada (CMIC) and Scarboro Foreign Missions (SFM) for their mission work. In dialogue with SFM, they have indicated they no longer require funds from the collection and have encouraged its redistribution to needy partners.

In mid-2016, it became known to the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops that the status of several of our country's northern dioceses was being changed by the Vatican from "missionary" status to "regular" status. Accompanying the change would be the slow loss of the subsidy to the northern dioceses from the Vatican Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples. At the annual assembly of Catholic bishops in September of 2016, the proposal was made, that where possible, the southern dioceses of the country assist the northern dioceses, not only to compensate for their financial loss, but also to help them rise out of their poverty. In light of this, and in keeping with the spirit of our annual Mission collection in August, the Archdiocese of Toronto has decided to reallocate SFM's portion of the collection towards selected Dioceses in remote areas in Northern Canada.

Psalm Refrain:

The Lord is the king, the most high over all the earth

Reflection

Today's liturgy invites us to celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. This feast calls to our attention the importance of this event in Jesus' life, further affirmed by its report in each of the Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke. In Cycle A, the reading for this feast is taken from the Gospel of Matthew. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter confesses his belief that Jesus is the Messiah and after Jesus predicts his Passion. In each of these Gospels, a discussion of the cost of discipleship precedes the Transfiguration.

In each Gospel, Jesus takes three of his disciples—Peter, James, and John—to a high mountain. While they are there, Elijah and Moses appear and converse with Jesus. Elijah and Moses are both significant figures in the history of Israel. Moses led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt and received from Yahweh the Ten Commandments. Moses represents the Law, which guides the lives of the Jewish people. Elijah is one of the most important prophets of Israel who helped the Israelites stay faithful to Yahweh, and some believed that Elijah's return would signal the coming of the Messiah for the Jewish people. The appearance of these two figures from Israel's history indicated Jesus' continuity with the Law and the prophets. They also reveal that Jesus is the fulfillment of all that was promised to the people of Israel.

Upon witnessing Jesus' Transfiguration and seeing Jesus with Elijah and Moses, an awestruck Peter offered to construct three tents for them when a voice from Heaven affirms that Jesus is "my beloved Son" and commands the disciples to listen to him.

In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, Jesus instructed the disciples to keep secret what they had seen until after "the Son of Man has been raised from the dead." Until they witnessed Jesus' Passion and Death, the disciples could not possibly understand what he meant by being "raised from the dead." We, however, have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of the Transfiguration Gospel, we see an anticipation of Jesus' Resurrection, a foreshadowing of Christ's glory in Heaven, and the promise of our own resurrection.
