

Refren Psalmu:

Okaż swą łaskę ufającym Tobie

Rozważania Niedzielne

Pokorny Sługa

Nie znajdziesz Jezusa, szukając Go na zaszczytnym miejscu. Musisz Go wyglądać tam, gdzie się ukrywa: przy końcu stołu. Na ucztę, jaką dla ciebie wyprawił, będzie raczej pośród sług. On lubi przebywać z pokornymi, tam pytaj o Niego. Pyszałków zdaje się omijać z daleka. A nawet jeśli znajdzie się w ich towarzystwie, nikt Go tam nie rozpozna – zbyt są zajęci sobą. Zanim siądzie do stołu, połamie chleb i rozda swoim przyjaciółom, z uniżeniem i czułością obmyje im nogi. Jeśli dostrzeżesz Kogoś, kto nie wzgardził grzesznicą, która łzami obmywała Mu stopy, idź do Niego.

Obchodząc dziś Dzień Misyjny, proszę Cię, Panie, abyś uczynił mnie pokornym świadkiem i apostołem Twojego miłosierdzia.

Your gift to God and our Parish

Heartfelt thank you for your generous support of the Church. God bless! Bóg zapłać!

Ogłoszenia / Announcements

There will be a second collection today for the Evangelization of the Nations, otherwise known as World Mission Sunday. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary church and it is our opportunity to assist at-need Catholic communities globally. Offerings are combined with offerings from other Catholics around the world and distributed to missions and dioceses. We are called to share from our abundance with those less fortunate who lack the basic essentials to know, love and praise our God. Thank you for your support of this important work.

In celebration of our 15th anniversary, Salt + Light TV is available on a free preview from participating cable and satellite providers across Canada until the end of December 2018. Salt + Light TV programming unites people together through prayer, celebration, thought-provoking reporting and stories of faith and action. Tune in and grow in the knowledge of our faith and Catholic tradition in its many expressions. Humanitarian Relief – Indonesia & Philippines

Areas of the Philippines were devastated by Typhoon Mangkhut on September 15, with winds of up to 225 km/h. More than 80 people died as a result of the storm and related landslides, flash floods and destruction of homes, infrastructure and crops. The region hardest hit was Northern Luzon, one of the main islands of the Philippines. In this area the storm surged up to six metres high, submerging huge areas of inhabited land. Days later, on September 28, an earthquake off the coast of Sulawesi island, Indonesia, caused a tsunami with waves six meters high. To date, more than 1300 people have been confirmed dead and many, many more remain missing. Survivors are struggling to find food and drinkable water. People also need adequate shelter and medical support. The earthquake damaged roads and telecommunications systems, creating many challenges to sending assistance to the affected areas.

In an effort to support the survivors of these two significant disasters, the Archdiocese of Toronto is accepting funds that will be sent through Caritas Internationalis, the official relief network of the Vatican. Contributions can be made through our parishes and through the Archdiocese of Toronto online portal at www.archtoronto.org. In both countries, Caritas agencies have deployed workers to provide food, drinking water, temporary shelter and medical support.

Those wishing to help may do so in the following ways:

- Online through the Archdiocese of Toronto website: www.archtoronto.org
 - By phone through the Development Office – 416-934-3411
 - Through the parish, making cheques payable to: Name of Parish-2018 Philippines OR Indonesia-Disaster Relief
- We offer our prayers for all those impacted by these natural disasters. Thank you for your ongoing efforts to assist those in crisis.

Psalm Refrain:

Let your love be upon us, Lord, even as we hope in you.

Reflection

In this Sunday's Gospel, we continue to read from the section of Mark's Gospel that reports Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. Last Sunday we heard Jesus lament the particular challenges those with many possessions face in order to enter the Kingdom of God. Jesus then predicts his passion to the Twelve, who are amazed and afraid. In this part of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words to his closest disciples seem to be intended to prepare them for the events that will occur in Jerusalem.

In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them.

Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community. Echoing the Gospel we heard several weeks ago (on the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Mark 9:33-37), Jesus acknowledges that his teaching is countercultural. In today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the dynamics within the community of disciples with those shown by the rulers of the Gentiles.

Following Jesus' example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take this opportunity to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority. On whose example do we model our leadership?
